

In accordance with the City of McGrath's
PROCLAMATION of EMERGENCY (Corona Virus-19)

The City of McGrath and the McGrath Native Village Council asks everyone to please be safe and do the right thing by following self-quarantine requirements as well as social distancing - keeping 6 feet between people that are not in your immediate family - to slow the spread of COVID-19. These travel requirements are put forth to protect the community from the spread of the Corona Virus-19.

THE FOLLOWING TRAVEL REQUIREMENTS SHALL GO INTO EFFECT FOR MCGRATH, ALASKA IMMEDIATELY:

The McGrath City Council and the McGrath Native Council requires that all non-essential travel to McGrath cease immediately. Local Agencies will reevaluate these travel requirements on April 15, 2020, or sooner if needed.

- All travelers who must enter our community are directed to quarantine themselves immediately from the rest of the community for a period of 14 days. Enforceable by State Law under Travel Mandate 12 Attachment B.
- McGrath Residents may return home but must, immediately, upon arrival, quarantine themselves, and anyone they are in contact with, for a period of 14 day upon arriving in McGrath. Enforceable by State Law under Travel Mandate 12 Attachment B.
- State Travel Mandate 10 requires a 14-day quarantine for all travelers coming into Alaska from out-of-state. Enforceable by State Law.
- State Health Mandate 9.1 requires everyone, except immediate family, to keep a 6' social distance from other people. Enforceable by State Law.
- Flight crews are asked to stay in the aircraft, if possible. However, they may conduct any necessary business required by their job or use the restroom if needed. Enforceable by State Law under Travel Mandate 12 Attachment B.
- No locals or cargo handlers are allowed in the passenger compartment of the aircraft, if possible. Those who must enter the passenger compartment must follow the airline's requirement for wearing sanitary gloves and appropriate personal protective equipment. Enforceable by State Law under Travel Mandate 12 Attachment B.

The following are exceptions to the travel requirements: Freight, cargo, and mail services; Public Safety, Emergency Medical Service, Fire (including DNR), Law enforcement activities, Medical-related travel, Office of Children's Services (following Travel Mandate attachment B), Essential personnel for infrastructure emergencies (power plant, water plant, sewer, DOT).
